

Correct the Sentence

Sentences are a group of words or a single word that makes sense by themselves. They start with capital letters and end with a full stop. They can contain nouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs and conjunctions. Some may include question marks, exclamation marks and speech marks.

Example:

The little girl cried quietly because she had lost her teddy bear.

capital letter

adjective

verb

adverb conjunction noun

full-stop

Questions:

The sentences below have been written incorrectly. Can you write them correctly by adding a capital letter, full stop or question mark where needed?

For an extra challenge, can you follow the instructions next to each sentence to improve it or add extra detail?

1. the boy walked to the shop

Can you add a conjunction to this sentence?

2. the dog barked loudly

Can you add an adjective to this sentence?

3. we watched the football match at the park

Can you add an adjective to this sentence?

4. tomorrow it is my birthday

Can you add a conjunction to this sentence?

5. how many sweets are in the jar

Can you add an adjective to this sentence?

6. the beach is always hot during the summer months

Can you add a conjunction to this sentence?

7. the racing car sped around the track

Can you add an adverb to this sentence?

8. it is cold outside

Can you add a conjunction to this sentence?

9. the beach was full of litter

Can you add a conjunction to this sentence?

10. the falcon swooped down to catch it's prey

Can you add two adjectives to this sentence?