

British values

What do you think values are?

I think values are the beliefs, morals and standards of behaviour that are important in someone's life.

So, what are British values?
Look at the posters on the next four slides, explaining each British value. Discuss Peter
Bear's questions and thoughts.

What do I do if I don't think
something is right or fair?

British Values

Individual Liberty

- I make the right choices
- I take responsibility for my actions
- I understand the consequences of my actions
- I manage risks
- I know how to exercise my rights and freedoms in an appropriate way

British Values

Rule of Law

- I value and understand the importance of rules and laws
- I follow school rules and understand why there is a consequence if I do not
- I understand that everybody is responsible for rules and laws
- I know rules are there to protect me

Do you know your school rules?
What happens if you break them?

How is your voice heard?
How do you show you are listening?

British Values

Democracy

- I know I have a voice and my opinions will be heard
- I can listen carefully to others
- I know how to discuss an issue in a calm way and can show respect for others even if I disagree
- My vote counts

What do I do
if something makes me feel angry or frustrated?

British Values

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

- I know my behaviour, actions and words can affect others
- I understand and respect that not everyone is the same as me and everyone needs to be treated as an individual
- I know that life is not the same for everyone
- I understand that people's faiths and beliefs are different, and I respect that

Can I be friends with someone who doesn't believe the same things that I do?

Look at the acronym on the next page that might help us remember the British values. What do you think it means?

Rule of Law

- I value and understand the importance of rules and laws
- I follow school rules and understand why there is a consequence if I do not
- I understand that everybody is responsible for rules and laws
- I know rules are there to protect me

What do I do if I don't think something is right or fair?

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

- I know my behaviour, actions and words can affect others
- I understand and respect that not everyone is the same as me and everyone needs to be treated as an individual
- I know that life is not the same for everyone
- I understand that people's faiths and beliefs are different, and I respect that

Can I be friends with someone who doesn't believe the same things that I do?

What matters to me?

Our Shared British Values I Really Do Matter

Individual Liberty

- I make the right choices
- I take responsibility for my actions
- I understand the consequences of my actions
- I manage risks
- I know how to exercise my rights and freedoms in an appropriate way

How can I make a difference?

How can my voice be heard?

Democracy

- I know I have a voice and my opinions will be heard
- I can listen carefully to others
- I know how to discuss an issue in a calm way and can show respect for others even if I disagree
- My vote counts

What does 'I Really Do Matter' mean?

I think it means that for us to live by these values in school, every single person matters, we all play our part and we are all very important.

Do you live by British values at school?

Rule of Law

- I follow class and school rules
- I know what happens if I break the school rules
- I know the difference between right and wrong
- I can explain who enforces rule or laws

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

- I learn about other people's faiths, religions and cultures at school
- I know not everyone is the same and can celebrate differences
- I know how to show someone respect

Individual Liberty

- I make choices at school such as my reading book, clubs, playground activities
- I take responsibility for my own behaviour
- School helps me to be confident and feel good about myself
- My opinions and ideas are listened to in school

Democracy

- I have opportunities to vote in school
- I know what the advantages and disadvantages of democracy are
- I can disagree with someone without getting angry, upset or frustrated